TO PREPARE A REPORTMayor Says Public Demand
Pure Water and That They Are Going to Vote for the Rabbit Hill Scheme.

Willis Chipman, of Toronto, city engineer of Edmonton when Mayor Stuart was mayor in the village of days long ago, and who located the present water plant, has been engaged by the mayor to make a report on the Rabbit Hill project, and yesterday afternoon the mayor took his special engineer and the six aldermen who favor the Rabbit Hill project, on a personally conducted tour to the scene of the proposed location of the new plant. The aldermen were Smith, Douglas, Levesque, Calder, Welch and Taylor. The expedition was undertaken on a pre-concluded understanding that the Rabbit Hill scheme is the one which would get the support of the council. The mayor stated that the object of the trip was to get more information about the lay of the land.

"Of course, nothing of a definite nature was accomplished," said the mayor, "but the majority of the council has determined on a pure water supply. They have asked for fuller information about the Rabbit Hill proposition, and his data will be compiled and presented to the council as soon as possible."

The mayor was then asked if he had suggested the Rabbit Hill project, and he replied that that was the reason why he sent for Mr. Chipman.

"The Rabbit Hill proposition is only a joke," said the mayor, when asked if he intended to have any further investigations made as to the advisability of placing the permanent water plant here. He stated that there is absolutely no sense in pumping the water up to Beaver Hills for the sake of having it run back again, and that the additional cost for pipe, etc., would be excessive.

"The public demand is for a pure water supply," said the mayor, "and it will be the aim of the council to get the supply provided for. The people will provide the money when it is required."

Chipman is now going over the reports submitted by the water experts, and when he has familiarized himself with them, will proceed to make a comparison of plans for the Rabbit Hill proposition.

The mayor stated that if the source of supply is to be beyond contamination it would be necessary to find a source of water. He said that he does not believe there would be any danger of any contamination from towns which are on the river, and that the only one of any great importance is the Rocky Mountain, and it is so far removed that it need not be feared.

The mayor was then asked if the addition to the present filtration plant, which has been held up pending the result of the report of the water experts, was so bad, said the mayor, "that it may not be possible to proceed with this work." Some weeks ago the contract was let for the New York Central Crown Jewell Filtration company and work was to commence immediately.

Well Drillers Strike Gas Flow
Inside the Five Mile Circle

Half Inch Pipe Installed and Gas Lighted, Shows Flame of 10 Feet—Will Be Sunk Deeper in Hope of Finding Heavier Flow.

While drilling an artesian well on the property of G. C. Fletcher, block A, Regent Park, within the five mile circle, workmen engaged in the task were startled on Friday, when suddenly the entire well boring apparatus was moved several feet by a sudden rush of gas. When the debris had been removed from the mouth of the well a half-inch pipe was installed and the gas lighted. The flame, 10 feet in height, is still burning, with no evident flickering in the pressure. The well will be bored deeper, and if the flow persists arrangements will be made to have the pressure ascertained by surveys as well as a report as to the probable limit of the flow.

ENVER BEY'S NAME GOING TO PROBE
TERROR TO BULGAR MINERAL WEALTH

Rumor That He Is in Vicinity of Adrianople Puts Them to Flight.

Sofia, July 22.—The report of the re-occupation of Adrianople by Turkish troops was received today by the Bulgarians with great interest. It was spread by fugitive Bulgarians from the city who heard that a reconnaissance force of Turkish cavalry commanded by the notorious Enver Bey had been seen in the vicinity. At this news the Bulgarians fled in panic, believing that the entire Ottoman army was about to descend on the place.

Communication was restored today between the Bulgarian capital and the city of Adrianople.

Official reports from the Bulgarian commander there showed that the Turkish troops retired after reconnoitering the position.

The Bulgarian government has ordered the revolutionists' functionaries to return to their posts. Similar instructions have been sent to Bulgarian officials.

PLAINTIVE TALE OF
HAPPY HOME BROKEN

Lure of the West and Whispers of Illicit Love Took Strong an Attraction for Woman Who Wandered Far Into the West.

Louis Rosenberg, of Philadelphia, Pa., who is now in quest of his wayward spouse who stopped with another man named Ralph Goldstein some six months ago from the Quaker city, and was traced here by the injured husband, Rosenberg, through friends that his lawfully wife and Rosenberg were living in this city and using his name, so come to take her back. He was greatly astounded this morning when in English of a broken variety, mingled with many Yiddish expressions, he told in the police station of his loss and broken home.

He told how happy they had been in this man Goldstein, entered the peaceful home and alienated his wife's affections by pouring sweet tales of love into her ear and promising great things for their future in this far west. The two left together, going to Buffalo, and from thence to this city. Rosenberg, on arrival, heard they had been living in a shack near the city park, but was unable to gain any information when he went out there this morning. He went to the police and asked them to aid him, but they could do no more than the missing couple, and he never heard of them, but they could do little. Rosenberg showed a marriage license and a certificate signed by several witnesses in Philadelphia as well as Justice of the Peace.

He stated that they had been married three years ago and brought along his little boy of two in hopes that to sight of him would induce his wife to return to her home. So far his quest has been useless as the lady was apparently gone. He is employed as a manufacturing jeweler in that city and claims to do good money. He was heart broken over the matter and said that he would stay around the city for as long as he could, and he was looking for a clue to where the pair had gone.

Death in Flames
The Fate of 35
Negro Convicts

Trapped by Fire on Second Story of Antiquated Cage for Prisoners in Louisiana

Jackson, Miss., July 22.—Trapped by flames in the second floor of an antiquated convict cage, 35 prisoners were burned to death at the Oakley convict farm, 20 miles from here last night.

While the flames ate away the only stairway leading to the second floor the prisoners frantically leaped at the heavy bars that covered the latt windows but to no avail. Their screams brought guards and other prison attaches but the flames drove back members of the rescue party, until they attempted to liberate the negroes, who by one fell swoop into the flames and perished.

With Skull Crushed Like an Egg Shell
Body of Unknown Victim of Brutal Murder
Found in the Wilderness Below Tete Jaune

British Columbia Survey Makes Guesstimate of Deserted Camp and Mangled Remains in Deepest Forest in Mountains—B. C. Police Start Investigation.

With the skull crushed like an egg shell, evidence of the brutal end of an axo of a man was found in the vicinity of the Tete Jaune. Fifty yards from where the remains were found a camp tent still stood, and a small table still was scattered around the spot and it was evident that the camp had been established for some time. From the cooking utensils left on the ground it is assumed that there were two or three men in the party. That they had been prospecting was shown by one or two specimens found near the body. It was evident that the body had been lying in the bushes for at least two weeks. Several parties of prospectors have gone out from Tete Jaune Cache, many of them do not return, and some have been found dead. A member of one of these parties, the police are investigating the case and will go into the wilderness to look up and removed to Tete Jaune Cache, where an inquest will be held and the body of the man will be returned to the police investigation.

INCREASE WITHIN
OLD CITY LIMITS
FORTY MILLION

Twenty Million Added to Taxable Property By Expiry of Exemptions

EIGHTEEN MILLION IN
NEW AREA INCLUDEDTotal Increase Over Last Year
$64,468,850 — Tax Rate
This Year Will Probably Be Within Twelve Mills.

The city assessor announced today that the total municipal assessment for the year 1913 is $187,941,920, as compared with $123,473,070, the amount of last year's assessment. Of the total amount this year, $20,108,350 represents the assessment on property that was exempt from municipal taxes in former years. These exemptions have expired on Capital Hill, Glenora, Fairview and Eastwood subdivisions, and therefore, this increase is shown. The property taken into the city limits and assessed this year for the first time, added $18,600,680 to the total assessment.

If the same property is taken into consideration on which an assessment has been made last year, exclusion of new property and exemptions, it indicates that there has been an increased value or an increase on assessment of this year over last year amounting to $10,028,140.

The total land within the city limits, exempt from all taxes, represents a value of $11,273,650. This is made up of government property, city property, churches, cemeteries, etc.

The total municipal assessment this year represents an increase of $64,468,850 over last year. If this increase means anything it should mean that the tax rate should not be any higher than 12 mills, the rate struck last year. An assessment totaling $123,473,070.

J. Walker, the city assessor, will send up the complete assessment to the council tonight, and if the estimates are completed in time, the rate and taxation list would be known within the next week.

The public school assessment is also largely increased. It should mean that the tax rate should not be any higher than 12 mills, the rate struck last year. An assessment totaling $123,473,070.

The separate school is assessed this year for $20,121,150. This amount has increased from a total of $13,116,250, the amount of last year's assessment.

A comparison of the property values as between the north side and the south side indicates that the total assessment on property north of the river is $14,933,500.

With the exception of Elm Park, the Hart estate and the Bremner estate, the new territory included within the city limits for the first time this year will not pay school taxes to the city. Municipal taxes only will be collected by the city and school taxes, if any, will be levied and collected by the rural school districts. This rule will prevail for the current year owing to the fact that the school districts have not been altered since the city limits were extended in 1912.

HOME SERIES STARTED PROPERLY BY BIRDS WHO WIN FROM BRONCS

Pop. Plentiful at Diamond Park When Edmonton Defeated Calgary in Opening Game of Series by Score of Five to Four—Edmonton Team Looks Good.

Baseball fans who attended the game last night came to the conclusion before the contest was started that Edmonton has a good club and should be winning games right along. The manner in which they won from Calgary last night, the score being five to four, was evidence that individually the team is as strong a unit as this city has ever possessed. Their work in the field was almost beyond criticism and at bat they outdid Calgary by a considerable margin.

Holmes and Dickenson were the opposing pitchers. Holme had somewhat the better of the throwing, striking out 10 men to Dickie's eight and leaving but three walks, whereas the Calgarian allowed six free transportation to first. The Broncs secured eight hits and Edmonton 11.

Edmonton played in somewhat bad luck. Twice they had the bases full and no runs resulted. In the fourth, with the bases full, Wisman walked the pill over the fence in left field, but it was outside of the foul line by a few feet.

In two or three innings the fielding of the Edmonton team was brilliant, O'Brien on third and Wisman in centre being particularly strong. O'Brien picked a hot grounder off the foul line and whipped it to first for an out and Wisman immediately after ran in on a fly to centre, picking it almost off his glove.

Two Break In Russell and O'Brien both broke in all right. The first time up Russell got a single and O'Brien batted two to the game. Russell handles himself nicely in the field, apparently being a steady rather than brilliant player.

Moran opened the proceedings with a single. Villa O'Brien at bat Holme allowed the pill to slip and Moran beat it for second. Holme heaved the pill to centre and Moran kept on going to the home plate. O'Brien died out and Wisman fouled to Streib. Russell singled, but to no purpose, for although Povey followed him with a walk, Redmond fanned.

Calgary failed to connect for a run in the first, but Holme started the second with a two bagger. Myers fanned, but Streib duplicated Holme's error and that gentleman scored. Dickenson and Vivian did, natural deaths.

The Birds expired one, two, three in the second.

In the third a triple by Povey, followed by a single by Moran brought over ten tally.

In the second half Moran's sliding pads were severely hurt and he was given a base. O'Brien sacrificed him to second. He stole third and came home when Wisman singled through first.

In the fourth Edmonton filled the bases. Redmond opened with a two bagger. Dudley scored him with another. Spencer hunted and beat it to first. Heinrichs was killed Holme to Streib. Moran walked and the bases were full again. O'Brien went to send and Wisman to Streib.

In the fifth Redmond walked after two were out. Dudley scored with a three bagger and Dud. crossed the plate on Spencer's single, making two runs.

The Broncs proceeded to cut down the Bird's lead by adding two runs to their side of the score board in this manner: Steele singled to right field. Roche died to Redmond. Holme grounded to third, but O'Brien threw badly to first, the sun being in his eyes. Myers singled over second, scoring the Indian. Holme went to

CHANCE THINKS CALAHAN GOLD-BRICKED HIM

New York Manager Wants League to Investigate Recent Trade.

New York July 22.—It was semi-officially announced here yesterday that the recent trade between the New York and Chicago clubs of the American league, involving Hal Chase, Holme Zeider and Barton, will be subjected to an investigation by the league authorities.

Manager Frank Chance has requested his club officers to carry the case to the baseball court on the grounds that he was deliberately deceived regarding the condition of Barton and Zeider, whom he accepted because for Chase.

Chance claims that he was personally assured by Manager Calahan of the White Sox that both Zeider and Barton were physically capable of playing big league ball. This statement, according to Chance, was far from being a fact, since Zeider had been spiked by "Ty" Cobb in Detroit two weeks before the trade and was under the care of the club trainer and physician as a result of the accident at the time of the trade.

New York club officials say that it may be weeks before Zeider is able to play for the Yankees and that Barton proved far from being the player he was alleged to be. All these charges will be laid before the proper league authorities and some form of reparation will be demanded by the New York club from the Chicago organization.

Millers Continue Mad Dash Towards Pennant

Defeat Saskatoon in Game Which For Six Innings Was Nip and Tuck But in Which Saskatoon Outfield Made Many Errors—Score Was Five to Two.

Saskatoon, July 22.—Moose Jaw continued their whirlwind winning dash yesterday, taking a sizzling battle with the Quakers 5 to 2.

For six innings it was nip and tuck, both teams playing fast and sensational ball. Steele was hammered off the mound in the first session, the Quakers abusing his wits for a brace of doubles. Northrup, who replaced him, gave a wonderful exhibition. The Quakers got only two hits off him, one of them a tricky bunt. He struck out eight men and passed two. With men on bases he was invincible. The Robin hoods gave Northrup almost perfect support and the infield played dazzling ball.

Beer was in great form on the local platform. He pitched stellar ball, but was given poor support by the outfield. Mills, Crulshanks and Gwynn all making errors. Beer was found for nine hits, only one going for extra bases. He struck out nine men and did not pass any.

The score: Moose Jaw ... 100 000 210—5 2
Saskatoon ... 200 000 000—2 4
Batteries: Steele, Northrup and Moore; Beer and Walters.

It threatens to send them to the cemetery in a hearse unless they join the league.

It is possible that marine engineering will be revolutionized as the result of a launch to be made at Middeleborough, England. The vessel conceived is the Tynepoint and it will be the first steel-galvanized ship in the world to be electrically propelled. The electricity is generated by two oil-engines. As the vessel is of 2,400 tons burden, it is large enough to ensure that its trial trips will have a 1934-1935 record.

"Now, Tommy," she said, "Mary followed Edward V., and who followed Mary?"

"Yes, Tommy knew that, and his answer was, 'as you know, the little lamb, Mary followed Edward V., and the teacher,' he shouted in triumph, 'followed Edward V.'"
